THE BROOKLINE HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY

EMPOWERING STUDENTS WITH KNOWLEDGE

Robert J. Weintraub, Ed. D., Headmaster

Robert J. Weintraub, Ed. D.,
Headmaster

Dear Members of the Class of 2000,

You are the renovation generation! You experienced the whole thing — from noisy beginnings to the final — quite beautiful — product. Your positive and cooperative spirit throughout the renovation defines your class. Your eyes were always on the prize — academic accomplishments and strong relationships. You have honored the best traditions of Brookline High and I am proud to send you forth as the leaders of the new millennium.

I have truly enjoyed our four years together — spending time in classes, at athletic contests, at your performances, in the corridors, cafe, Quad, Atrium, and out front on Greenough Street. I will miss you. Always consider BHS one of your homes (and someday, when you are able, think about the 21st Century Fund).

Dr. (Bob) Weintraub

Terri Manchester

Brenda McIntyre

"Susan has a wonderful, caring spirit that enables students to understand their potential and can easily bring out the best in any individual. Working with her has been a privilege and a joy. I wish her many happy travels!" - Mr. Johnston

"Our Mrs. Segal will be remembered as the best teacher in our lives. She has helped many students change their lives. She would go to any extent to help you."
Rose Hamilton

"I just want to thank Mrs. Segal for giving me another chance and always believing in me." - Kim C.

Mrs. Segal is the best treasure that one would find at a yard sale! She has the patience to allow students to make mistakes, but has the innate ability to change those mistakes into successes. She has been a gift to all her students. I hope to be half of the teacher she has been. Best of luck and have fun!

Mary Gamache

"In my first year at Brookline High School, she's done more for me than she'll probably know . She deserves all the respect in the world." - Tracey Coffin

"Mrs. Segal is special to me because she helped me in class and she was so nice to me when I needed to talk. I will always remember her for that and it is sad to see her leave this school." - L. G.

Segal has been there for me through good and bad, I will never forget that. She is the most caring and generous person I have ever met, and this I respect her for.
"A.R."

"Mrs. Segal is not only a teacher, but a friend. . .my mentor. A false word has never left her mouth. I'll never forget her!" - Leah Wilson

Transcript Snafu Shakes up BHS

David Schlitt

Most years, students applying early to college have only to worry about writing essays, getting recommendations, filling out forms and keeping their grades up. This fall, these students, and the guidance department, were strapped yet with another burden: incorrect transcripts

The problem was called to the attention of the administration in October, when National Merit Scholarship Semifinalists were given transcripts with incorrect GPA's, and missing final grades and credits. Since then, the guidance department has been "questioning every single transcript," to check for errors and discrepancies, assures Mrs. Heffernan of the Guidance Department. As far as early applications go, we're moving it out as fast as we can. It'll be right when it leaves."

Many of the faulty transcripts require close attention, and must be returned by

MEDIATION

Mediation gives you a chance to sit face to face with the person you are having problems with. You get to talk uninterrupted, so each side of the dispute can be heard. After the problem is defined, a solution is created. When an agreement is reached, it is written and signed. A student mediator is one of your peers who has been trained to conduct mediation meetings and make sure they are helpful and fair.

OUR BRIAN'S SONG

We have watched you grow from our little baby into a gentle giant. We could not be prouder of the man you have become. Your sense of fairness and loyalty touches everything around you. You have a uniqueness about you that makes you stand out. It is not just your physical size but your quiet assuredness that people notice. We are all touched by your quick wittedness and your ability to laugh at life. Your laughter is a source of joy for all who have the luck to hear it pour from your heart.

You and your brother have always been an inspiration to all of us who have been blessed to share your lives. You have always opened your heart to others as we have opened our doors to bring so very many people into our home. They have all been blessed by the time they shared with you. All of us have felt such pride as we have listened to others praise you. You have never been the bully and we have never been ashamed of your actions. You have maintained such a balanced sense of "self" that it has sometimes been hard to think of you as a child. You have had a sense of purpose from the time you were a baby. Your ability to commit yourself to something you wanted and to see it through has been an example for all of us. We marveled as you trained yourself to draw. What dedication! And your ability to make friends anyplace is a source of pride for your family.

Yes Brian, you are everything a proud parent could want in a son. We pray that you will always maintain your uniqueness and your sense of fairness. We pray that you will always have your ready smile and that it will remain as sincere as we have found it through the years. We pray that you will always be as gentle as you have been to all those around you. And finally we pray that you will always keep God and your family close to your heart.

We thank you for being our "Baby" and want you to know we Love you and admire you. God Bless You.

Congratulations to the Class of 2000

To My Lil' Bro.....
Brian,
Since Day 1, you've been my ace. From times when we were younger, and had our differences, to the present, while I am away at school, or at home, and we have our little arguments, I've always had much love for you, and that will never change. You are a very independent person, but at the same time, you still stay very close to family and friends, and that is something that makes you the strong person you are. We are very similar, but also very different. Sometimes, when we talk, it feels as if I am talking to a wall, because you can be very hard-headed and stubborn, but other times, we have great conversations and I feel as if you are the only person I can talk to about certain things. We understand each other very well, and you always have, and always will be my best friend. I am very proud of you for what you have accomplished over time, and what you have yet to accomplish, so keep up the good work kid. As an older brother, it has been strange to see you grow up, and change over time. You're still the same though, so DON'T EVER CHANGE!! If peeps don't like you for who you are, then... well... you know the rest. Continue to be as determined as you have been, and take whatever you decide to do, to the next level, and higher. The World Is Yours.....
I Love You Lil' Bro,

Jason
